

DeskMakers Gets Set to Conquer the Big Apple and Surrounding Area
By Adding Sales Teams in New York and New Jersey

New Sales Rep Robin Poole will serve northern New Jersey, and Studio-Tag will now serve New York from their Midtown Manhattan showroom.

Commerce, CA (2/7/17) – DeskMakers, a leading manufacturer of office furniture, recently expanded their presence in the New York/New Jersey area through new sales representatives Studio-Tag, based in Manhattan, and Robin Poole Associates, based in Northern New Jersey.

“We’re excited at the addition of Studio Tag and Robin Poole Associates as they will now allow DeskMakers to service the largest metropolitan area in the country,” says CEO Phil Polishook. “And as the saying goes, ‘if we can make it there, we’ll make it anywhere.’”

Opened in 2015 in the historic Plant Building in Midtown Manhattan, Studio-Tag’s showroom features a significant presence from DeskMakers, as well as showing commercial furnishings from other well-known European and North American manufacturers. Principals Emma Robson and Jon Offerman will be the main sales representative contacts, and will serve New York and the surrounding markets.

“DeskMakers is the perfect partner for Studio-Tag,” says Robson, “and their TeamWorx desking system and distressed finishes are getting rave reviews from our clients.”

Robin Poole, principal of Robin Poole Associates, is the newest addition to the team of sales representatives at DeskMakers, and will serve northern New Jersey. Poole possesses over 20 years’ experience in A&D sales which she will bring to her new assignment.

“I’m excited to be representing DeskMakers,” Says Poole. “and bring their stylish furniture to designers and dealers in the New Jersey market.”

Customers in New York can reach Studio-Tag at erobson@studio-tag.com. For New Jersey, contact Robin Poole at robin147@optonline.com.
